TO: United States Secret Service
FROM: Deputy Director for Plans
SUBJECT: BARTONE, Dominick

1. Reference is made to the telephone request received 8 September 1965 from Mr. Stoner concerning Subject. The files of this office contain the following information which was previously forwarded to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

2. Information dated August 1959 from a fairly reliable source indicated that the home of Subject [Dominick Edward BARTONE aka BARTONI aka BERTONE aka BERTONI aka Nick BARTON, born 8 August 1913 in New York City] at 4236 Chase Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida, was the site of a meeting 10 August 1959 of Major William Alexander MORGAN and a group of Cubans opposed to Fidel CASTRO's regime. During the meeting, MORGAN received $140,000 in cash from two of the Cubans present, for use against CASTRO. (An untested source reported in March 1959 that Subject had befriended MORGAN when Subject was trying to sell Globe-master aircraft to the Cuban Revolutionary Air Force.)

3. According to reports dated 25 August and 26 August 1959 from a fairly reliable and sensitive source, Subject sent Miami lawyer Andrew PEALIDAS to Panama with $70,000 in cash to open a checking account in the Panama City branch of the National City Bank in the name of Servicios Internacionales, SA. The sole authorized signature on checks was to be that of Subject, and the local legal representative was the firm ARIAS, FABRECA and FABRECA. Source believed that the funds were connected with MORGAN.

206 SA R 10/1/65 On 4 September 1959 the same source indicated that $60,000 had been withdrawn from the account by PEALIDAS.

possibly to be deposited in the French Banco Fiduciario in Panama City which authorized numbered accounts. Source indicated that the remaining $10,000 would probably be withdrawn soon.
