

109TH CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

H. R. 6322

To direct the Attorney General to conduct a study on the feasibility of expanding the National Incident-Based Reporting System to identify crime data relating to elementary and secondary schools.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

NOVEMBER 14, 2006

Mrs. MCCARTHY (for herself and Mr. DANIEL E. LUNGREN of California) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To direct the Attorney General to conduct a study on the feasibility of expanding the National Incident-Based Reporting System to identify crime data relating to elementary and secondary schools.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Accurate Crime Trends
5 for Schools Act”, or the “ACT for Schools Act”.

6 SEC. 2. STUDY AND REPORT.

7 (a) STUDY.—The Attorney General shall, in consulta-
8 tion with the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investiga-

1 tion and the International Association of Chiefs of Police,
2 conduct a study to determine the feasibility of expanding
3 the National Incident-Based Reporting System to include
4 information on the occurrence of school-related crime in
5 elementary and secondary schools. Such study shall in-
6 clude the identification and evaluation of methods that
7 may be used to collect and report such information.

8 (b) REPORT.—Not later than 6 months after the date
9 of the enactment of this Act, the Attorney General shall
10 report the results of the study conducted under subsection
11 (a) to the appropriate committees of Congress.
