

109TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 356

Condemning in the strongest terms the terrorist attacks in London, England, on July 7, 2005.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JULY 12, 2005

Mr. HYDE (for himself and Mr. LANTOS) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on International Relations

RESOLUTION

Condemning in the strongest terms the terrorist attacks in London, England, on July 7, 2005.

Whereas, on July 7, 2005, a series of explosions on public transportation facilities in London, England, resulted in the death of scores of civilians and the injury of hundreds of others;

Whereas the explosions had been planned and carried out by terrorists;

Whereas British first responders reacted swiftly and heroically to save and assist civilian victims;

Whereas the people of London and of the United Kingdom have a history of bravery and resolve in the face of terrorism and war;

Whereas the people and Government of the United Kingdom have been engaged in common efforts with the people and Government of the United States in every front in the Global War on Terrorism and in other efforts to assure a safer and more secure world;

Whereas the people and Government of the United Kingdom have been making heroic sacrifices in Afghanistan, in Iraq, and in the ongoing “shadow war” against terrorists around the world; and

Whereas President George W. Bush, then present in Gleneagles, Scotland, with other world leaders, expressed the solidarity of the people and Government of the United States with the people and Government of the United Kingdom: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) condemns in the strongest terms the ter-
3 rorist attacks in London, England, on July 7, 2005;

4 (2) expresses its condolences to the families and
5 friends of those individuals who were killed in the 6 attacks and expresses its sympathies to those indi-
7 viduals who have been injured;

8 (3) joins with President George W. Bush in ex-
9 pressing the solidarity of the people and Government
10 of the United States with the people and Govern-
11 ment of the United Kingdom as the recovery con-
12 tinues from these cowardly and inhuman attacks;
13 and

1 (4) expresses its readiness to provide any nec-
2 essary assistance to the United Kingdom authorities
3 and to devote the necessary resources to bring to 4 justice those individuals responsible for the London
5 attacks, and to pursue, disrupt, undermine, and dis-
6 mantle the networks which plan and carry out such 7 attacks.

○