Mourning the loss of life caused by the earthquake that occurred on October 8, 2005, in Pakistan and India, expressing the condolences of the American people to the families of the victims, and urging assistance to those affected.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 17, 2005

Mr. HYDE (for himself, Mr. LANTOS, Mr. LEACH, Mr. FALEOMAVAEGA, Mr. BURTON of Indiana, Mr. ACKERMAN, Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN, Mr. CROWLEY, and Mr. MENENDEZ) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on International Relations

RESOLUTION

Mourning the loss of life caused by the earthquake that occurred on October 8, 2005, in Pakistan and India, expressing the condolences of the American people to the families of the victims, and urging assistance to those affected.

Whereas on October 8, 2005, a powerful earthquake measuring 7.6 on the Richter Scale occurred in Pakistan and India, centered on the city of Muzaffarabad;

Whereas the earthquake caused severe damage in both Pakistan and India;

Whereas the earthquake and continuing aftershocks have caused more than 50,000 deaths, resulted in serious injuries to additional tens of thousands of people, and left between 2.5 and 3 million homeless as winter in the affected mountainous region approaches;

Whereas millions of people throughout the affected region currently lack clean water, food, proper sanitation, basic healthcare, adequate shelter, and other necessities, thereby increasing the risk of additional suffering and death; and

Whereas the United States and donors from at least 30 other countries have, to date, pledged several hundred million dollars in emergency and long-term reconstruction assistance, and have begun to deliver humanitarian supplies to survivors of the earthquake: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) mourns the tragic loss of life and horrendous suffering caused by the earthquake that occurred on October 8, 2005, in Pakistan and India;

3 (2) expresses the deepest condolences of the American people to the families, communities, and governments of the tens of thousands of individuals who lost their lives in this earthquake;

4 (3) welcomes and commends the prompt international humanitarian response to the earthquake by the governments of many countries, the United Nations and other international organizations, and non-governmental organizations;

5 (4) expresses gratitude and respect for the courageous and committed work of all individuals pro-

1 viding aid, relief and assistance, including United
2 States civilian and military personnel, who are work-
3 ing to save lives and provide relief in the devastated
4 areas; and

5 (5) supports the actions to assist the victims
6 taken by the President and the Government of the 7 United States to provide all appropriate assistance
8 to the governments and people of the affected re-
9 gion.
