

109TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 608

Condemning the escalating levels of religious persecution in the People's Republic of China.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

DECEMBER 14, 2005

Mr. McCOTTER submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on International Relations

RESOLUTION

Condemning the escalating levels of religious persecution in the People's Republic of China.

Whereas the Constitution and laws of the People's Republic of China purport to provide for religious freedom, however, these freedoms are substantively ignored;

Whereas all religious groups and spiritual movements must register with the Chinese Government, which monitors religious services and judges the legitimacy of religious activities;

Whereas unregistered religious groups in China continue to experience official interference and members of religious groups have been subjected to intimidation, harassment,
and detention;

Whereas many religious leaders and adherents in China, including those in official churches, have been detained, arrested, or administratively sentenced to prison terms in reeducation-through-labor camps;

Whereas religious believers are denied the ability to hold public office not by law, but by a logical extension of the fact that most government positions go to members of the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) and CCP membership and religious belief are considered incompatible;

Whereas numerous abuses of unofficial Catholic clergy have occurred, including the detentions of Bishop Zhao Zhendong, Bishop Jia Zhigou, Bishop Yao Liang, Bishop Su Zhimin, Bishop An Shuxin, Bishop Gao Kexian, Father Han Dingxian, and Father Li Hongye, as well as other Catholic priests and lay leaders who have been beaten or otherwise mistreated;

Whereas the whereabouts of Gendun Choekyi Nyima, the boy identified by the Dalai Lama as the 11th Panchen Lama and detained by Chinese authorities ten years ago, when he was six years old, are still unknown;

Whereas, according to the Department of State, Chinese authorities continue to restrict Muslim religious activity, teaching, and worship in Xinjiang, including reported prohibitions on the participation and religious education of minors;

Whereas the Chinese Government continues its brutal campaign to eradicate the Falun Gong spiritual movement and thousands of its members have been subject to excessive force, abuse, detention, and torture, including Liu Chengjun who died in 2003 after reportedly being abused in custody in Jilin Province and Huang Wei who is currently detained in Hebei Province, among others;

Whereas Cai Zhuohua, a Beijing underground church leader, was sentenced on November 8, 2005, to three years in prison for distributing Bibles and other Christian materials;

Whereas the Haidian Lower People's Court in Beijing also sentenced Mr. Cai's wife, Xiao Yunfei, to two years in prison and her brother, Xiao Gaowen, to 18 months in prison; and

Whereas on November 20, 2005, after attending services at the Gangwashi Church in Beijing, President George W. Bush stated: "A healthy society is a society that welcomes all faiths and gives people a chance to express themselves through worship with the Almighty": Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That—

2 (1) the House of Representatives condemns the
3 imprisonment of religious leaders and people of faith
4 in the People's Republic of China and urges their re-5 lease; and

6 (2) it is the sense of the House of Representa-
7 tives that it should be the policy of the Government
8 of the United States to promote and defend religious 9 freedom and freedom of conscience in China.
