RESOLUTION

Honoring the town of Nicodemus, Kansas, for its contribution to American history.

Whereas, in the South, the rights gained by African-Americans immediately following the Civil War were largely stripped away at the end of the Reconstruction period;

Whereas this Nation was founded on the ideals of freedom and equality for all;

Whereas the West was viewed as a land of opportunity;

Whereas many African-Americans left the South and moved west in search of the freedom and opportunity promised to all Americans;

Whereas abolitionists shed blood for the State of Kansas to enter the Union as a Free State;

Whereas Kansans welcomed African-Americans from the South making Kansas their new home;

Whereas Nicodemus, Kansas, was planned and founded by six African-American men;

Whereas, on September 17, 1877, the first formal group of settlers, numbering 350, arrived in Nicodemus, Kansas;

Whereas Nicodemus, Kansas, offered African-Americans an opportunity to own their own land, make a living farming, and prosper in a jurisdiction self-governed by African-Americans;

Whereas, during a time when many African-Americans were denied an education in the South, African-Americans in Nicodemus, Kansas, established schools to educate the town's children;

Whereas Nicodemus, Kansas, grew and prospered in the 1880s as a result of the ingenuity of African-American entrepreneurs and the dedication of African-American farmers;

Whereas the hard work, resourcefulness, and courage of the African-American pioneers who founded and lived in Nicodemus, Kansas, serves as an example of the American spirit;

Whereas Nicodemus, Kansas, is the only remaining Western town established by African-Americans during the Reconstruction period;

Whereas, in January 1976, the Nicodemus Historic District was designated as a National Historic Landmark;

Whereas, on November 12, 1996, Congress established the Nicodemus National Historic Site to preserve, protect, and interpret the remaining structures and locations that represent the history of the town of Nicodemus, Kansas;

Whereas the National Park Service and the current residents of Nicodemus, Kansas, are working to preserve this historic site for future generations; and

Whereas, this year, Nicodemus, Kansas, will celebrate its tenth anniversary as a national historic site: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) honors the town of Nicodemus, Kansas, for
3 its contribution to American history; and

4 (2) commends and encourages the preservation
5 efforts of the National Park Service and the resi-
6 dents of Nicodemus, Kansas.
