CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of Congress with respect to the use of racially based quotas designed to thwart the implementation of the death penalty.

Whereas a racially based quota system designed to thwart the implementation of the death penalty is vigorously opposed by the National District Attorneys Association and the National Association of Attorneys General; and

Whereas the death penalty is supported by a majority of Americans as a weapon against the spread of violent crime: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That it is the sense of Congress that neither
3 the President nor any other entity in the executive branch
4 should attempt to impose a racially based quota system
5 to challenge death penalties because such a system is anti-6 thetical to the American ideal of justice.
