CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Concerning deployment of United States Armed Forces in Haiti.

Whereas Article I, Section 8 of the United States Constitution vests the authority to declare war in the Congress;

Whereas at the request of the United States, the United Nations Security Council on July 31, 1994, adopted Security Council Resolution 940, which authorizes United Nations member states to form a multinational force under unified command and control and, in this framework, to use all necessary means to facilitate the departure from Haiti of the military leadership, consistent with the Governor's Island Agreement, the prompt return of the legitimately elected President, and the restoration of the legitimate authorities of the Government of Haiti, and to establish and maintain a secure and stable environment that will permit implementation of the Governors Island Agreement; and

Whereas officials of the United States Government have indicated they expect the United States to lead any multinational force implementing United Nations Security Council Resolution 940 and the United States has deployed United States Armed Forces in the region in preparation for possible use in Haiti: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that—

3 (1) the President is required to obtain the prior 4 approval of the Congress before United States
5 Armed Forces may undertake offensive military ac-

1 tion against the military leadership of Haiti in ac-
2 cordance with United Nations Security Council Res-
3 olution 940; and

4 (2) the President is recognized as having the in-
5 herent authority to use United States Armed Forces
6 to protect or evacuate United States citizens from 7 imminent danger or for humanitarian purposes.
