2^D SESSION

H. CON. RES. 281

Expressing the sense of the Congress that the United States Embassy in Israel should, at the earliest possible date, be relocated to the city of Jerusalem.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

AUGUST 11, 1994

Mr. SHAW (for himself and Mr. JOHNSTON of Florida) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Congress that the United States Embassy in Israel should, at the earliest possible date, be relocated to the city of Jerusalem.

Whereas each sovereign nation, under international law and custom, chooses its own capital city;

Whereas the state of Israel has selected Jerusalem as its capital city; and

Whereas Israel is the only country in which the United States Embassy is not located in the designated capital of the country: Now, therefore, be it

- 1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
- 2 concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that the
- 3 United States Embassy and the residence of the United

1 States Ambassador in Israel should be moved to Jerusa-
2 lem at the earliest possible date in accordance with inter-
3 national custom that embassies are located in the capital
4 city of the host nation.
