1ST SESSION

H. J. RES. 282

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States regarding federally-mandated expenditures.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 26, 1993

Mr. GILLMOR introduced the following joint resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States regarding federally-mandated expenditures.

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled
3 (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), That the fol-
4 lowing article is proposed as an amendment to the Con-
5 stitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all
6 intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when 7 ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several

1 States within seven years after the date of its submission
2 for ratification:

3 “ARTICLE —

4 “SECTION 1. The Congress shall not enact any provi-
5 sion of law that has the effect of requiring any State or 6 local government to expend non-Federal funds to comply
7 with any Federal law unless the Congress reimburses the 8 State or local government for the non-Federal funds ex-
9 pended to comply with that Federal law.

10 “SECTION 2. Section 1 shall not prohibit the Con-
11 gress from enacting a provision of law that permits a State
12 or local government to choose to expend non-Federal funds
13 in order to receive Federal funds.

14 “SECTION 3. Sections 1 and 2 shall take effect five 15 years after the ratification of this article.”.
