JOINT RESOLUTION

Designating March 25, 1994, as “Greek Independence Day: A National Day of Celebration of Greek and American Democracy”.

Whereas the ancient Greeks developed the concept of democracy, in which the supreme power to govern was vested in the people;

Whereas the Founding Fathers of the United States drew heavily upon the political experience and philosophy of ancient Greece in forming the representative democracy of the United States;

Whereas these and other ideals have forged a close bond both between the United States and Greece and between their peoples;

Whereas March 25, 1994, marks the 173rd anniversary of the beginning of the revolution that freed the Greek people from the Ottoman Empire and enabled the reestablishment of democracy in Greece; and

Whereas it is proper and desirable to celebrate that anniversary with the Greek people and to reaffirm the democratic principles from which the United States and Greece were born: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That March 25, 1994, is designated as “Greek Independ-
4 ence Day: A National Day of Celebration of Greek and
5 American Democracy”, and the President is authorized
6 and requested to issue a proclamation calling on the people
7 of the United States to observe the day with appropriate
8 ceremonies and activities.
