

103^D CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

H. J. RES. 344

Designating May 14, 1994, as “National Police Survivors Day”.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 23, 1994

Mr. MANTON (for himself and Ms. DUNN) introduced the following joint resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service

JOINT RESOLUTION

Designating May 14, 1994, as “National Police Survivors Day”.

Whereas the police officers of America work devotedly and selflessly to serve and protect the people of this Nation, regardless of the peril or hazard to themselves;

Whereas each year nearly 150 Federal, State, and municipal police officers are tragically killed in the line of duty while safeguarding the lives and property of their fellow Americans;

Whereas the lives of surviving family members of police officers killed in the line of duty are forever changed; and

Whereas these survivors, who have experienced such great loss, have earned the gratitude of the Nation: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That May 14, 1994, is designated as “National Police
4 Survivors Day”, and the President is authorized and re-
5 quested to issue a proclamation calling on the people of
6 the United States to observe the day with appropriate
7 ceremonies and activities.
