JOINT RESOLUTION

To designate August 1, 1994, as “Helsinki Human Rights Day”.

Whereas August 1, 1994, is the 19th anniversary of the signing of the Final Act of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe (CSCE) (hereafter referred to as the “Helsinki Accords”);

Whereas the participating States have declared their determination to fully respect and apply the Helsinki Principles Guiding Relations among participating States, including respect for human rights, the territorial integrity of states, and the inviolability of frontiers;

Whereas the participating States have declared that “the protection and promotion of human rights and fundamental freedoms and the strengthening of democratic institutions continue to be a vital basis for our comprehensive security”;

Whereas the participating States have declared that “respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms, including the rights of persons belonging to national minorities, democracy, the rule of law, economic liberty, social justice, and environmental responsibility are our common aims”;

Whereas the participating States have acknowledged that “there is still much work to be done in building democratic and pluralistic societies, where diversity is fully protected and respected in practice”;

Whereas the war in Bosnia-Herzegovina has resulted in organized, systematic, and premeditated war crimes and genocide and has threatened stability and security in Europe;

Whereas ethnic tensions, civil unrest, and egregious human rights abuses in several of the recently admitted CSCE States continue to result in significant violations of CSCE commitments; and

Whereas the CSCE has contributed to positive developments in Europe by promoting and furthering respect for the human rights and fundamental freedoms of all individuals and groups and provides an appropriate framework for the further development of such rights and freedoms and genuine security and cooperation among the participating States: Now, therefore, be it
