IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 20, 1993

Mr. STARK (for himself, Ms. PELOSI, and Mr. SABO) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

---

A BILL

To deny, under certain conditions, most-favored-nation treatment to the products of countries that engage in nuclear explosive device testing.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       That General Note 3(b) of the Harmonized Tariff Sched-
4       ule of the United States is amended—

5               (1) by inserting “(i)” before “Notwithstand-
6       ing”; and

7               (2) by adding at the end the following:

8       “(ii) If the President determines that a foreign country
9       has tested a nuclear explosive device at any time during 10       a period in which the United States is—

1       “(A) observing a moratorium on the testing of nu-
2       clear explosive devices; or
3       “(B) party to a comprehensive nuclear explosive test
4       ban treaty;
5       the President shall proclaim that the rates of duty
6       shown in column 2 shall apply to the products of 7       that country, whether imported directly or indirectly,
8       that are entered during the 1-year period beginning
9       on the date of such determination.”.
