2<sup>D</sup> SESSION

H. R. 4075

To establish a rapid deployment force.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 17, 1994

Mrs. KENNELLY introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To establish a rapid deployment force.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Rapid Deployment
5       Strike Force Act”.

6       SEC. 2. ESTABLISHMENT.

7       (a) IN GENERAL.—The Attorney General shall estab-
8       lish in the Federal Bureau of Investigation a unit, to be 9       known as the Rapid Deployment Force, which shall be 10      made available to assist units of local government in com-
11      bating crime in accordance with this Act.

1 (b) ASSISTANT DIRECTOR.—The Rapid Deployment
2 Force shall be headed by a Deputy Assistant Director of 3 the Federal Bureau of Investigation (referred to as “Dep-
4 uty Assistant Director”).

5 (c) PERSONNEL.—

6 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Rapid Deployment
7 Force shall be comprised of approximately 2,500
8 Federal law enforcement officers with training and 9 experience in—

10 (A) investigation of violent crime, drug-re-
11 lated crime, criminal gangs, and juvenile delin-12 quency; and

13 (B) community action to prevent crime.

14 (2) REPLACEMENT.—To the extent that the 15 Rapid Deployment Force is staffed through the 16 transfer of personnel from other entities in the De-
17 partment of Justice or any other Federal agency,
18 such personnel of that entity or agency shall be re-
19 placed through the hiring of additional law enforce-
20 ment officers.

21 SEC. 3. DEPLOYMENT.

22 (a) IN GENERAL.—On application of the Governor of 23 a State and the chief executive officer of the affected local 24 government or governments (or, in the case of the District 25 of Columbia, the mayor) and upon finding that the occur-

1 rence of criminal activity in a particular jurisdiction is 2 being exacerbated by the interstate flow of drugs, guns,
3 and criminals, the Deputy Assistant Director may deploy
4 on a temporary basis a unit of the Rapid Deployment
5 Force of an appropriate number of law enforcement offi-
6 cers to the jurisdiction to assist State and local law en-
7 forcement agencies in the investigation of criminal activ-
8 ity. For the purposes of this Act, the term “State” shall 9 be deemed to include the District of Columbia and any 10 United States territory or possession.

11 (b) APPLICATION.—An application for assistance
12 under this section shall—

13 (1) describe the nature of the crime problem
14 that a local jurisdiction is experiencing;

15 (2) describe, in quantitative and qualitative 16 terms, the State and local law enforcement forces
17 that are available and will be made available to com-
18 bat the crime problem;

19 (3) demonstrate that such State and local law
20 enforcement forces have been organized and coordi-
21 nated so as to make the most effective use of the re-
22 sources that are available to them, and of the assist-
23 ance of the Rapid Deployment Force, to combat
24 crime;

1           (4) demonstrate a willingness to assist in pro-
2           viding temporary housing facilities for members of 3           the Rapid Deployment Force;

4           (5) delineate opportunities for training and edu-
5           cation of local law enforcement and community rep-
6           resentatives in anticrime strategies by the Rapid De-
7           ployment Force;

8           (6) include a plan by which the local jurisdic-
9           tion will prevent a rebound in the crime level follow-
10          ing departure of the Rapid Deployment Force from 11          the jurisdiction; and

12          (7) such other information as the Deputy As-13          sistant Director may reasonably require.

14          (c) CONDITIONS OF DEPLOYMENT.—The Deputy As-
15          sistant Director, upon consultation with the Attorney Gen-
16          eral, may agree to deploy a unit of the Rapid Deployment
17          Force to a State or local jurisdiction on such conditions
18          as the Deputy Assistant Director considers to be appro-
19          priate, including a condition that more State or local law 20          enforcement officers or other resources be committed to 21          dealing with the crime problem. The unit shall serve under 22          the overall control of the senior State or local law enforce-23          ment authority in the deployment area, pursuant to a
24          clearly delineated command and operational deployment
25          agreement reached prior to the deployment by the Deputy

1 Assistant Director and such senior State or local author-
2 ity.

3 (d) DEPUTIZATION.—Members of the Rapid Deploy-
4 ment Force who are deployed to a jurisdiction shall be 5 deputized in accordance with State law so as to empower 6 such officers to make arrests and participate in the pros-
7 ecution of criminal offenses under State law.

8 SEC. 4. LEAVE SYSTEM.

9 Notwithstanding subchapter I of chapter 63 of title
10 5, United States Code, the Attorney General of the United 11 States shall, after consultation with the Director of the 12 Office of Personnel Management, establish, and admin-
13 ister an annual leave system applicable to the Federal law
14 enforcement officers serving in the Rapid Deployment
15 Force.

16 SEC. 5. LOCATION OF UNITS AND FUNCTIONS WHEN NOT 17 DEPLOYED.

18 (a) LOCATION.—Units of the Rapid Deployment
19 Force shall be based in the Nation's major regions at loca-
20 tions and in facilities determined by the Attorney General.
21 Members of the Rapid Deployment Force shall receive 22 training and education in the regional crime problems of 23 the region where they are based. The Deputy Assistant
24 Director whenever possible shall deploy units in the region
25 where they are based.

1       (b) NONDEPLOYMENT FUNCTIONS.—When not de-
2 ployed pursuant to a deployment agreement to a locality,
3 the Deputy Assistant Director shall use members of a unit
4 to provide special training and education to local law en-
5 forcement agencies. To the extent Rapid Deployment
6 Force units are not needed for deployment or training,
7 members of such units shall be available to support ongo-
8 ing regional Federal Bureau of Investigation efforts and 9 programs and, as appropriate, other Federal law enforce-
10 ment efforts, until required for deployment and training.
