1ST SESSION

H. RES. 228

To declare that July 28, 1993, be recognized as Parents Day.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JULY 27, 1993

Mr. BURTON of Indiana submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service

RESOLUTION

To declare that July 28, 1993, be recognized as Parents Day.

Whereas the values of sacrificial love and integrity are fundamental in developing the moral character essential to maintaining a strong nation;

Whereas parents by their example of sacrificial love and the transmission of moral and cultural values play a crucial and determinant role in the development of youth;

Whereas time has demonstrated that the traditional American family is the most stable and secure environment in which parents can successfully rear future generations;

Whereas the current breakdown of the traditional American family is a major factor contributing to the rise of crime, teen pregnancy, educational failure, substance abuse, and suicide among our Nation's youth; and

Whereas it is in the interest of society and government to adopt policies that help families stay together by strengthening and sustaining fathers and mothers in fulfilling their parental roles: Now, therefore, be it
