

H. Res. 322

In the House of Representatives, U. S.,

November 22, 1993.

Resolved, That upon the adoption of this resolution the House shall be considered to have taken the bill (H.R. 1025) to provide for a waiting period before the purchase of a handgun, and for the establishment of a national instant criminal background check system to be contacted by firearms dealers before the transfer of any firearm, with a Senate amendment thereto, from the Speaker's table, to have disagreed to the Senate amendment, and to have agreed to the request of the Senate for a conference thereon. The requirement of clause 4(b) of rule XI for a two-thirds vote to consider a report from the Committee on Rules on the same day it is presented to the House is waived with respect to a resolution reported on the legislative day of November 22, 1993, providing for the consideration or disposition of a conference report to accompany that bill.

Attest:

Clerk.
