

H. Res. 394

In the House of Representatives, U. S.,

March 22, 1994.

Resolved, That it is the sense of the House of Representatives that:

(a) Congress has a constitutional obligation to conduct oversight of matters relating to the operations of the Government, including matters related to any governmental investigations which may, from time to time, be undertaken.

(b) The Speaker, majority and minority leaders should meet to determine the appropriate timetable, procedures, and forum for appropriate congressional oversight, including hearings on all matters related to “Madison Guaranty Savings and Loan Association (‘MGS&L’), Whitewater Development Corporation and Capital Management Services Inc. (‘CMS’)”.

(c) No witness called to testify at these hearings shall be granted immunity under sections 6002 and 6005 of title 18, United States Code, over the objection of Special Counsel Robert B. Fiske, Jr.

(d) The hearings should be structured and sequenced in such a manner that in the judgment of the leaders they would not interfere with the ongoing investigation of Special Counsel Robert B. Fiske, Jr.

Attest:

Clerk.
