

103^D CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

H. RES. 464

Designating July 12, 1994, as “Public Health Awareness Day”.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 23, 1994

Mr. DINGELL (for himself, Mr. WAXMAN, Mr. MOORHEAD, and Mr. BLILEY) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service

RESOLUTION

Designating July 12, 1994, as “Public Health Awareness Day”.

Whereas the modern United States Public Health Service was shaped by legislation passed by the Congress 50 years ago this month;

Whereas the Public Health Service has been at the vanguard of health: protecting the public from disease and epidemics and, in conjunction with the States, maintaining public health capacity;

Whereas the Public Health Service is a world leader in addressing the challenge of promoting and protecting health in America and worldwide;

Whereas the Public Health Service protects the safety and quality of foods, drugs, and medical devices for all Americans;

Whereas the Public Health Service provides emergency health services in response to America's natural disasters;

Whereas the Public Health Service is a world leader in health and medical research;

Whereas the Public Health Service is a world leader in the effort to immunize children and adults against preventable infectious diseases both in the United States and worldwide;

Whereas the Public Health Service is a world leader in the fight against AIDS and AIDS-related illnesses; and

Whereas the Public Health Service is comprised of 50,000 dedicated professionals: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That July 12, 1994, is designated as “Pub-
2 lic Health Awareness Day”, and the President is author-
3 ized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon
4 the people of the United States to observe that day with
5 appropriate activities.

○