After general debate the bill shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. In lieu of the committee amendments now printed in the bill, it shall be in order to consider as an original bill for the purpose of amendment under the five-minute rule an amendment in the nature of a substitute consisting of the text of H.R. 4663. That amendment in the nature of a substitute shall be considered by title rather than by section, and each title shall be considered as read. All points of order against that amendment in the nature of a substitute are waived. No amendment directly or indirectly changing section 111(c)(2)(B)(iii), 111(d)(4)(F), 111(e)(3), or 226(b)(8) of the amendment in the nature of a substitute made in order as original text shall be in order. All points of order against the amendments printed in the report are waived. If more than one of the amendments printed in the report is adopted, only the last to be adopted shall be considered as finally adopted and reported to the House. Except as provided in section 2 of this resolution, no other amendment (other than a further amendment in the nature of a substitute) may directly or indirectly change a portion of the amendment in the nature of a substitute made in order as original text addressed by an amendment printed in the report. Except as provided in section 3, no other amendment to the amendment in the nature of a substitute made in order as original text shall be in order unless printed in the portion of the Congressional Record designated for that purpose in clause 6 of rule XXIII before the commencement of consideration of the bill. without intervening motion except one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

SEC. 2. It shall be in order immediately after the disposition of the amendments printed in the report of the Committee on Rules accompanying this resolution to consider additional amendments directly or indirectly changing a portion of the amendment in the nature of a substitute made in order as original text addressed by an amendment printed in the report of the Committee on Rules, if offered by a Member designated jointly by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Foreign Affairs and the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Armed Services. All points of order against such additional amendments are waived.

for division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole. For the purpose of inclusion in such amendments en bloc, an amendment printed in the form of a motion to strike may be modified to the form of a germane perfecting amendment to the text originally proposed to be stricken. All points of order against such amendments en bloc are waived. The original proponent of an amendment included in such amendments en bloc may insert a statement in the Congressional Record immediately before the disposition of the amendments en bloc.
