CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Congress regarding the visit of the Prime Minister of New Zealand, the Right Honorable James Bolger.

Whereas New Zealand and the United States enjoy a natural and historic partnership built on shared values and shared Pacific shores, and an unshakable commitment to democracy, human rights and to market economies; and

Whereas the New Zealand Prime Minister will be visiting Washington, DC from March 26 through 29, 1995, to meet with the President and leaders of the United States Congress: Now, therefore, be it

- 1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
- 2 concurring), That the Congress—

1           (1) welcomes the Prime Minister of New Zea-
2 land, the Right Honorable James Bolger, to the 3 United States of America on the occasion of his 4 visit;

5           (2) recognizes the traditional and close ties be-6 tween New Zealand and the United States;

7           (3) notes with interest the comprehensive eco-
8 nomic reforms New Zealand has undertaken over the 9 last ten years, which has seen it move from one of 10 the most insulated and restrictive economies among 11 Organization for Economic Cooperation and Devel-
12 opment countries to one of the most open and com-
13 petitive;

14           (4) commends New Zealand for its dedication
15 to reducing agricultural protectionism and liberaliz-
16 ing world trade, particularly in the Uruguay Round, 17 where New Zealand and the United States have 18 worked closely together; and

19           (5) welcomes bilateral trade between New Zea-
20 land and the United States, which exceeded United 21 States $2,000,000,000 in 1994.
