15 TITLE I—REVIEW OF INTERGOVERNMENTAL
16 REGULATIONS

17 REPORT REQUIRED

18 SEC. 101. (a) Not later than thirty days after the 19 date on which the President transmits a budget for a fiscal 20 year to the Congress pursuant to section 1105 of title 31, 21 United States Code, the President shall submit to the 22 Congress a report specifying and evaluating the economic 23 costs, noneconomic costs, and additional direct costs which 24 have been incurred or which will be incurred by State gov-
25 ernments and local governments in complying with inter-

1 governmental regulations during the most recently com-
2 pleted fiscal year, the fiscal year in progress, and the first 3 two fiscal years immediately succeeding the fiscal year in 4 progress.

5 (b) Each report required under subsection (a) shall 6 include—

7 (1) a list of each intergovernmental regulation
8 in effect during each fiscal year for which the report
9 is made and a citation of statutory and administra-
10 tive authority for each such intergovernmental regu-
11 lation;

12 (2) an estimate, for each such intergovern-13 mental regulation, of—

14 (A) the total amount of economic costs,
15 noneconomic costs, and additional direct costs 16 that have been incurred or will be incurred in 17 each such fiscal year by the government of each 18 State and all local governments in such State in 19 complying with such regulation in each such fis-20 cal year; and

21 (B) the ratio (stated as a percentage)
22 which the total amount of additional direct 23 costs that have been incurred or will be in-24 curred by all local governments in a State in 25 complying with such regulation in each such fis-

1 cal year bears to the total amount of additional 2 direct costs that have been incurred or will be 3 incurred by the government of such State and 4 all local governments in such State in comply-5 ing with such regulation in such fiscal year;

6 (3) an estimate, for each such regulation, of the 7 economic and noneconomic benefits that will be pro-
8 vided in each such fiscal year to each State govern-
9 ment and all local governments in such State as a 10 result of compliance with such regulation during 11 each such fiscal year;

12 (4) recommendations for changes in laws and 13 regulations that will reduce the costs specified pur-
14 suant to paragraph (2), or that will achieve a more 15 favorable balance between the benefits specified pur-
16 suant to paragraph (3) and the costs specified pur-17 suant to paragraph (2); and 18 (5) proposals for legislation, and a statement of 19 planned administrative actions, to implement the 20 recommendations specified pursuant to paragraph 21 (4).

22 PROCEDURES FOR PREPARATION OF REPORT

23 SEC. 102. (a) The President may delegate to the Di-
24 rector or to the head of any other Federal agency the re-25 sponsibility for preparing the annual report required by 26 section 101.

1 (b)(1) In carrying out the provisions of this title, the 2 President, the Director, or the head of a Federal agency 3 to which a delegation is made under subsection (a), shall 4 prescribe standards to be used by Federal agencies in esti-
5 mating the costs of compliance with, and the benefits pro-6 vided by, intergovernmental regulations administered by 7 such agencies.

8 (2) The President, the Director, or the head of a Fed-9 eral agency to which a delegation is made under subsection
10 (a) shall prescribe the standards required under para-
11 graph (1)—

12 (A) after consultation with State and local gov-13 ernments and the Comptroller General of the United 14 States; and

15 (B) after providing public notice and an oppor-
16 tunity for comment in accordance with section 553
17 of title 5, United States Code.

18 (3) Standards prescribed under paragraph (1) may 19 be revised from time to time to reflect changes in relevant 20 economic and social circumstances and advances in perti-21 nent branches of knowledge.

22 (c) The standards prescribed under subsection (b) 23 shall provide, to the extent possible, for—

1 (1) uniform categories of costs of compliance
2 with, and benefits provided by, intergovernmental
3 regulations;

4 (2) methods to be used by the President, and 5 by Federal agencies, in estimating the additional di-6 rect costs that will be incurred by State and local 7 governments in complying with each intergovern-8 mental regulation, including methods to estimate the 9 amount of such costs that will be incurred for each 10 fiscal year in which each such regulation is in effect;

11 (3) methods to be used by Federal agencies in 12 compiling the information required to be submitted 13 under subsection (d) which shall be designed to—

14 (A) minimize the costs that will be in-15 curred by the State and local governments and 16 the Federal assistance recipients from which 17 such information will be collected; and

18 (B) ensure the collection of reasonably ac-
19 curate information in a form that will be useful
20 to States in complying with section 204(c);

21 (4) methods for preventing disclosure of infor-
22 mation about individuals or businesses the confiden-
23 tiality of which is protected under Federal law;

1 for such fiscal year to reimburse such governments for the 2 total amount of additional direct costs that will be in-
3 curred by such governments in complying with such regu-
4 lation during such fiscal year.

5 (b) For purposes of this section, the total amount of 6 additional direct costs that will be incurred by State gov-7 ernments and local governments in complying with an 8 intergovernmental regulation in any fiscal year shall be the 9 total amount of such costs for such regulation estimated 10 by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office for 11 such fiscal year in the report required under section 202
12 for such fiscal year.

13 REPORT BY THE DIRECTOR OF THE CONGRESSIONAL 14 BUDGET OFFICE

15 SEC. 202. (a) For each fiscal year in which an inter-16 governmental regulation promulgated pursuant to a sig-
17 nificant law will be in effect, the Director of the Congres-18 sional Budget Office shall prepare and transmit to the 19 President and the Congress a report specifying, for such 20 fiscal year and the fiscal year succeeding such fiscal year, 21 an estimate of the total amount of additional direct costs
22 that will be incurred by State governments and local gov-23 ernments in complying with such regulation in each such 24 fiscal year.

25 (b) In preparing each report required by subsection 26 (a), the Director of the Congressional Budget Office shall

1 consider the estimate of additional direct costs for a fiscal 2 year resulting from compliance with an intergovernmental 3 regulation which are specified in the report submitted by 4 the President under title I during the fiscal year preceding 5 such fiscal year.

6 (c) The Director of the Congressional Budget Office 7 shall transmit each report required by subsection (a) for 8 a fiscal year to the President and the Congress by Septem-9 ber 1 of the fiscal year preceding such fiscal year.

10 IMPLEMENTATION

11 SEC. 203. For each fiscal year in which an intergov-
12 ernmental regulation promulgated pursuant to a signifi-
13 cant law will be in effect, the chairman of the committees 14 of the Senate and of the House of Representatives having 15 legislative jurisdiction over such significant law shall pro-
16 pose, to an appropriate bill or resolution providing funds
17 for such fiscal year, an amendment containing provisions 18 to appropriate funds to reimburse State governments and 19 local governments for the additional direct costs incurred
20 in complying with such regulation. The amount of funds 21 proposed to be appropriated by such amendment shall be 22 equal to or in excess of the amount described in section 23 201(a).

1 governments described in section 201(a) with respect to 2 such regulation for such fiscal year as the total amount
3 of additional direct costs with respect to such regulation
4 which is specified in the report submitted by the President
5 under title I for such fiscal year for such State government
6 and local governments in such State for such fiscal year
7 bears to the sum of the total amounts of additional direct 8 costs with respect to such regulation which are specified
9 in such report for all State governments and all local gov-10 ernments for such fiscal year.

11 (c)(1) The total amount to be paid by a State govern-12 ment to local governments in such State to reimburse such 13 governments for additional direct costs incurred by such 14 governments in complying with an intergovernmental reg-15 ulation in any fiscal year shall be the amount which is 16 equal to the product of the amount paid to the State under 17 subsection (b) for such fiscal year multiplied by the ratio
18 determined by the President for such State with respect
19 to such regulation for such fiscal year pursuant to section 20 101(b)(2)(B).

21 (2)(A) A State government which receives payments 22 under this section to reimburse local governments in the 23 State for the additional direct costs incurred by such gov-
24 ernments in complying with an intergovernmental regula-

1 tion in any fiscal year shall pay to each such local govern-2 ment an amount equal to the product of—

3 (i) the total amount determined under para-4 graph (1) with respect to such regulation for such 5 fiscal year, multiplied by

6 (ii) the ratio (stated as a percentage and esti-
7 mated by the State in accordance with subparagraph
8 (B)) that the total amount of additional direct costs 9 incurred by such local government in complying with 10 such regulation in such fiscal year bears to the total 11 amount of additional direct costs incurred by all 12 local governments in such State in complying with 13 such regulation in such fiscal year.

14 (B) Each State government which receives payments
15 under this section for any fiscal year shall provide by law
16 for the estimation of the amount of additional direct costs
17 incurred by each local government in such State in com-18 plying with an intergovernmental regulation for which 19 such payments are received. In providing for the esti-
20 mation of such costs, the State shall establish procedures 21 and methods for the estimation of such costs which are 22 reasonably related to the actual additional direct costs in-
23 curred by such governments in complying with such regu-
24 lation in such fiscal year.

1 EFFECT OF SUBSEQUENT ENACTMENTS

2 SEC. 205. No law enacted after the date of enactment
3 of this title shall supersede the provisions of this title un-4 less such law does so in specific terms, referring to this 5 title, and declares that such law supersedes the provisions 6 of this title.
