

105TH CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

H. CON. RES. 333

Expressing the sense of the Congress that public schools should conduct ceremonies and other activities to educate and inform students about the sacrifice and commitment of veterans of the United States Armed Forces.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 2, 1998

Mr. REDMOND submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Education and the Workforce

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Congress that public schools should conduct ceremonies and other activities to educate and inform students about the sacrifice and commitment of veterans of the United States Armed Forces.

Whereas the men and women who have served in the United States Armed Forces have made immeasurable sacrifices for the principles of freedom and liberty that make this Nation unique in all civilization;

Whereas veterans of the United States Armed Forces forever carry the sense of duty, pride, and patriotism that they developed in service to the Nation;

Whereas the values instilled in the Nation's veterans should be passed on to younger generations; and

Whereas the Congress established Veterans Day as a day for observing and commemorating the sacrifices of all veterans: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that pub-
3 lic schools should conduct ceremonies and other activities
4 to educate and inform students about the sacrifice and
5 commitment of veterans of the United States Armed
6 Forces.
