CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Recognizing and commending American airmen held as political prisoners at the Buchenwald concentration camp during World War II for their service, bravery, and fortitude.

Whereas 168 Allied airmen captured by Axis forces during World War II were held as political prisoners at the Buchenwald concentration camp in Weimar, Germany;

Whereas of these captured airmen, 82 were Americans, 26 were Canadians, 48 were Britons, 9 were Australians, 2 were New Zealanders, and 1 was Jamaican;

Whereas the facts and circumstances of their confinement are amply documented in the official records maintained by the National Archives and Records Administration;

Whereas a report from the International Red Cross concerning Stalag Luft III in Sagan, Germany, mentioned six American airmen held at Buchenwald, including one whose name does not appear on the lists maintained by the National Archives;

Whereas since the liberation of Buchenwald in 1945 numerous personal memoirs, scholarly books, and articles have been published describing the conditions at the concentration camp;

Whereas this extensive documentation records the extraordinarily inhuman treatment, deprivations, and personal suffering inflicted on these 168 Allied airmen and other inmates at Buchenwald; and

Whereas Allied Governments and veterans organizations outside the United States have granted special recognition to their citizens and servicemembers who were held as political prisoners in World War II concentration camps: Now, therefore, be it

1        Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That the Congress—

3            (1) recognizes and commends the 82 American
4        airmen held as political prisoners at the Buchenwald
5        concentration camp during World War II for their
6        faithful service, personal bravery, and exceptional
7        fortitude; and

1           (2) requests that the President issue a procla-
2           mation recognizing and commending, by name, the
3           service, bravery, and fortitude of those airmen.
