

107TH CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

H. CON. RES. 442

Recognizing the American Road and Transportation Builders Association for reaching its 100th Anniversary and for the many vital contributions of its members in the transportation construction industry to the American economy and quality of life through the multi-modal transportation infrastructure network its members have designed, built, and managed over the past century.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JULY 17, 2002

Mr. YOUNG of Alaska (for himself, Mr. OBERSTAR, Mr. PETRI, and Mr. BORSKI) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Recognizing the American Road and Transportation Builders Association for reaching its 100th Anniversary and for the many vital contributions of its members in the transportation construction industry to the American economy and quality of life through the multi-modal transportation infrastructure network its members have designed, built, and managed over the past century.

Whereas, founded in 1902 by Horatio Sawyer Earle, a visionary Michigan public official, the American Road and Transportation Builders Association is the Nation's oldest national association exclusively representing the transportation construction industry;

Whereas, for a century, the American Road and Transportation Builders Association has successfully advocated for strong Federal investment in transportation infrastructure, highlighted by the world's greatest road network, the Dwight David Eisenhower System of Interstate and Defense Highways;

Whereas the transportation construction industry that the American Road and Transportation Builders Association represents works to constantly improve America's transportation network, including our Nation's roads, bridges, airports, mass transit systems, ports, and waterways that are the foundation on which the Nation's economy stands and grows;

Whereas the American Road and Transportation Builders Association incorporates educational, research, and charitable efforts to advance the transportation construction industry, improve transportation education, maintain the highest industry standards of excellence, and ensure the public health, safety, and welfare; and

Whereas the multi-modal transportation infrastructure network that American Road and Transportation Association members have designed, built, and managed over the past century, in partnership with government at all levels, has made America's economy the envy of the world and provided the American people with an unmatched quality of life: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That the Congress—

3 (1) acknowledges the American Road and
4 Transportation Builders Association for its 100th
5 Anniversary;

1 (2) commends the many achievements of the
2 transportation construction industry; and

3 (3) encourages the American Road and Trans-
4 portation Builders Association to continue its tradi-
5 tion of excellence in service to the transportation
6 construction industry and to the public.

○