JOINT RESOLUTION

Recognizing the contributions of Patsy T. Mink.

Whereas Patsy Takemoto Mink was one of the country's leading voices for women's rights, civil rights, and working families and was devoted to raising living standards and providing economic and educational opportunity to all Americans;

Whereas Patsy T. Mink was a passionate and persistent fighter against economic and social injustices in Hawaii and across America;

Whereas Patsy T. Mink was one of the first women of color to win national office in 1964 and opened doors of opportunity to millions of women and people of color across America;

Whereas Pasty Mink won unprecedented legislative accomplishments on issues affecting women’s health, children, students, and working families; and

Whereas Patsy T. Mink’s heroic, visionary, and tireless leadership to win the landmark passage of title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 opened doors to women’s academic and athletic achievements and redefined what is possible for a generation of women and for future generations our Nation’s daughters: Now, therefore, be it
