A BILL

To amend title 18, United States Code, to establish an Office of Correctional Education, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Promoting Reentry 5 Through Education in Prisons Act of 2019” or the 6 “PREP Act”.

7 SEC. 2. FINDINGS; PURPOSE.

8 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

1           (1) Over the course of an 8-year-period fol-
2           lowing the release of individuals from Federal pris-
3           ons, the United States Sentencing Commission
4           found that 49.3 percent of such individuals were re-
5           arrested, 31.7 percent were reconvicted, and 24.6
6           percent were reincarcerated.

7           (2) The Bureau of Justice Statistics found that 8           over a similar time period as described in paragraph
9           (1), 83 percent of people released from State prisons
10          were rearrested.

11          (3) A broad spectrum of correctional education
12          programming can prepare individuals for the con-
13          temporary workforce pre-release, ensuring that upon 14          release the individuals are best situated to be pro-
15          ductive members of their communities.

16          (4) Education for people in prisons has a clear 17          public safety benefit, reducing recidivism rates by 18          over 43 percent.

19          (5) Employment is 13 percent higher for indi-
20          viduals who participated in either academic or voca-
21          tional programs in prison, and 28 percent higher for 22          individuals who participated in vocational programs
23          alone.

24          (6) During the first 3 years after an individual
25          is released, each dollar spent on funding prison edu-

1 cation programs reduces incarceration costs by 4 to 2 5 dollars.

3 (7) Correctional education helps to improve the 4 safety of the prison environment, not only for incar-
5 cerated individuals, but also for correctional officers
6 and prison staff.

7 (8) A 2016 analysis of the Bureau of Prisons
8 education programs found that the Bureau of Pris-
9 ons spends 20 percent as much on inmate education
10 as the nearest sized State prison systems and experi-
11 ences a proportionally low return.

12 (9) The 2016 analysis described in paragraph 13 (8) also found that the Bureau of Prisons lacked the 14 staff, programmatic strategy and alignment, budget,
15 assessment, and educational support to effectively
16 administer educational programs.

17 (b) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this Act is to create 18 a dedicated office within the Bureau of Prisons to—

19 (1) improve the correctional educational pro-
20 gramming provided by the Bureau of Prisons;

21 (2) ensure access to quality programs across all
22 Federal penal and correctional institutions;

23 (3) create partnerships with education providers
24 to offer quality programs; and

1           (4) create a repository of research and best
2           practices to State and local correctional institutions.
