

119TH CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

H. R. 7431

To implement the proposed constitutional amendment requiring Members of Congress to demonstrate competence in American civics.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FEBRUARY 9, 2026

Mr. HUNT introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on House Administration, and in addition to the Committee on Rules, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To implement the proposed constitutional amendment requiring Members of Congress to demonstrate competence in American civics.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Congressional Civics 5 Act of 2026”.

1 SEC. 2. IMPLEMENTATION OF EVENTUAL CONSTITUTIONAL
2 REQUIREMENT THAT MEMBERS OF CON- 3 GRESS DEMONSTRATE COMPETENCE IN 4 AMERICAN CIVICS.

5 (a) IN GENERAL.—The Congress shall establish and 6 administer, for each census term, the examination re-7 quired for Members of Congress to demonstrate com-8 petence on the system of government under the United 9 States Constitution.

10 (b) EXAMINATION REQUIREMENT FOR MEMBERS OF 11 CONGRESS.—A House of Congress may not seat an indi-
12 vidual as a Member following the election or appointment 13 of the individual, as the case may be, unless the individual 14 can demonstrate, in accordance with the rules of the 15 House concerned, that the individual has successfully com-16 pleted the examination in effect at the time of the election 17 or the appointment.

18 (c) EFFECT OF FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH EXAM-
19 INATION REQUIREMENT.—An individual elected or ap-20 pointed to be a Member of Congress who does not success-21 fully complete the examination in effect at the time of the 22 election or appointment may not become a Member until 23 the individual successfully completes the examination, and 24 a vacancy shall arise with respect to the election or ap-25 pointment if the individual does not successfully complete

1 the examination before two weeks after the election or ap-2 pointment.

3 (d) CONTENT OF EXAMINATION.—The examination
4 shall consist of 25 questions randomly drawn from among 5 100 questions approved in accordance with this section, 6 with 5 questions from each of the following topics:

7 (1) The founding of the first colonies and fac-
8 tors contributing to American independence.

9 (2) Events in the American Revolution.

10 (3) The Constitutional Convention of 1787 and 11 the ratification of the United States Constitution.

12 (4) The Civil War and Reconstruction.

13 (5) The First World War.

14 (6) The Second World War.

15 (7) The Declaration of Independence.

16 (8) The Articles of Confederation.

17 (9) The United States Constitution.

18 (10) The Bill of Rights.

19 (11) The constitutional amendments ratified 20 following the Civil War.

21 (12) The other amendments to the Constitu-
22 tion.

23 (13) Civil rights and civil liberties.

24 (14) Due process and the rule of law.

25 (15) Elections and the democratic process.

1 (16) Federalism, the relationship between the 2 States and the Federal Government, and the relation 3 between the United States and Indian Tribes.

4 (17) Separation of powers under the Constitu-
5 tion.

6 (18) The Congress.

7 (19) The President and the executive depart-8 ments.

9 (20) The Supreme Court and the Federal judi-10 ciary.

11 (e) CORRECT ANSWERS.—A response to a question 12 in the examination shall be considered correct if the re-13 sponse is in accordance with the corresponding model an-14 swer to the question.

15 (f) COMMITTEE REPORT ON PROPOSED QUESTIONS
16 AND ANSWERS FOR THE EXAMINATION.—Not later than 17 June 30 of the year preceding the start of a census term, 18 the appropriate congressional committees shall jointly sub-19 mit to the House of Representatives and the Senate a re-20 port on the examination for the census term which shall 21 include—

22 (1) questions and corresponding model answers 23 in accordance with subsections (d) and (e);

1 (2) the number of correct responses required
2 for an individual taking the examination to success-3 fully complete the examination; and 4 (3) the rules to govern the proceedings for the 5 joint session of Congress under subsection (h)—

6 (A) to consider, make amendments to, or 7 replace the questions and corresponding model 8 answers described in paragraph (1) or the num-9 ber of correct responses required for successful 10 completion of the examination under paragraph 11 (2); and

12 (B) to approve the examination after car-
13 rying out subparagraph (A).

14 (g) MEMBER SUBMISSIONS OF QUESTIONS AND AN-15 SWERS.—Not later than March 31 of the year preceding 16 the start of a census term, a Member of Congress may 17 submit to the appropriate congressional committees such 18 questions and corresponding model answers for inclusion 19 in the report under subsection (f).

20 (h) JOINT SESSION OF CONGRESS FOR CONSIDER-21 ATION AND APPROVAL OF THE EXAMINATION.—Not ear-22 lier than two months after the submission of the report 23 under subsection (f) and not later than October 31 of the 24 year before the start of a census term, the House of Rep-25 resentatives and the Senate shall meet in a joint session

1 of Congress to consider the report and approve the exam-2 ination, in accordance with the rules to govern the pro-3 ceedings for the joint session included in the report.

4 (i) EFFECTIVE DATE OF EXAMINATION.—The exam-
5 ination approved under subsection (h) in the year pre-6 ceding the start of a census term shall be the examination 7 in effect for the census term.

8 (j) PUBLICATION OF THE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
9 FOR THE EXAMINATION.—On approval of the examination
10 under subsection (h), each House of Congress shall cause 11 the approved questions and corresponding model answers 12 with respect to the examination to be published in the 13 journal of proceedings of the House concerned, and the 14 appropriate congressional committees shall make available
15 to the public a report containing the approved questions 16 and corresponding model answers which shall also include 17 such other information reasonably necessary for an indi-18 vidual to successfully complete the examination.

19 (k) ADMINISTRATION OF THE EXAMINATION.—The 20 Clerk of the House of Representatives and the Secretary 21 of the Senate, or their respective designees, shall—

22 (1) jointly administer the examination in ac-23 cordance with this section;

24 (2) subject to subsection (1), make the examina-25 tion available, through a platform available on the 1 internet, for any citizen of the United States to take 2 at the discretion and convenience of the citizen, 3 without cost to the citizen;

4 (3) maintain a database accessible to the gen-5 eral public of individuals who have successfully com-6 pleted the examination; and 7 (4) provide to any individual who successfully 8 completes the examination, on the demand of the in-9 dividual, a certificate that shall serve as conclusive 10 proof with respect to successfully completing the ex-11 amination.

12 (l) LIMIT ON EXAMINATION SITTINGS.—An indi-13 vidual may not take the examination under this section 14 more than 3 times each calendar year, but an individual 15 elected or appointed to be a Member of Congress who does 16 not successfully complete the examination before the elec-17 tion or appointment shall have the opportunity to take the 18 examination at least once before a vacancy shall arise with 19 respect to the election or appointment, notwithstanding 20 any attempts to take the examination before the election 21 or appointment.

19 SEC. 3. INTERIM IMPLEMENTATION OF EXAMINATION FOR 20 COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS.

21 (a) IN GENERAL.—For each census term, each 22 House of the Congress shall establish and administer an 23 examination in accordance with this section, with respect 24 to which a Member of Congress in the House concerned 25 may not be assigned to a committee in the House or a

1 joint committee of the Congress unless the Member can 2 demonstrate, in accordance with the rules of the House, 3 that the Member has successfully completed the examina-4 tion in effect at the time of the committee assignment.

5 (b) EXERCISE OF RULEMAKING POWERS.—This sec-
6 tion is enacted by the Congress—

7 (1) as an exercise of the rulemaking power of 8 the Senate and the House of Representatives, re-9 spectively, and as such it is deemed a part of the 10 rules of each House, respectively, and it supersedes 11 other rules only to the extent that it is inconsistent 12 with such rules; and 13 (2) with full recognition of the constitutional 14 right of either House to change the rules (so far as 15 relating to that House) at any time, in the same 16 manner, and to the same extent as in the case of 17 any other rule of that House.

18 (c) CONTENT OF EXAMINATION.—The examination
19 shall consist of 25 questions randomly drawn from among 20 100 questions approved by the applicable House of Con-
