VIII. TRAVEL

In connection with ALEX's recent European vacation it was established that ALEX had rented a car in Zurich, Switzerland. The Cantonal Police of Zurich, Switzerland, advised on April 10, 1963, that it was established that the car which ALEX rented was from the firm of Hertz AG., at Zurich, Switzerland. Arrangements for the rental were arranged by the Hertz Reservation Office, 660 Madison Avenue, New York City. The reservation for this car had been made for December 22, 1962, by G. N. ALEX. On December 22, 1962, the car was picked up by a chauffeur of the Grand Hotel in Zurich, and was then delivered to ALEX who signed contract number 06476 by paying the necessary deposit of $100. The car was later returned to Hertz AG. in Naples, Italy on January 18, 1963, where ALEX paid the balance of the rent, which amounted to approximately $546.

The Swiss Central Police advised that it had been established that ALEX stayed at the Schloss Hotel in Pontresina, between December 22, 1962, and January 3, 1963, together with his girlfriend, presumably SUZANNE FUEGER, born January 3, 1938. They stayed in Rooms 217 and 218. It was determined by the Swiss Central Police that during his stay in Pontresina, ALEX had private skiing lessons by two local ski instructors and according to the staff of the Schloss Hotel he did not mix with other guests at the hotel. His girlfriend was addressed as Mrs. ALEX. She spoke English with an accent as well as a Bavarian or Austrian dialogue. It was determined that upon departure from Pontresina ALEX arranged for dispatch of some luggage addressed to Miss ELROSE FUEGER, Riederau 4, Upper Bavaria. ALEX' hotel registration lists ALEX's birth date as April 1, 1916, at Chicago, Illinois, occupation public relations man and home address as 9353 South Spaulding Avenue, Evergreen Park, Illinois.
