CRIMINAL INTELLIGENCE PROGRAM
DALLAS DIVISION

Reurairtel 3/12/62.

On page 4 of referenced airtel you quoted DL 149-C, who stated he had heard that Will Wilson, Attorney General, State of Texas, had taken a large amount of money from Las Vegas, Nevada, gamblers at the time of his Attorney General election to keep Texas "closed up" as far as gambling was concerned. Advise the Bureau if you have received this information from other sources or if data is available which will confirm or disprove this allegation.

You further quoted this informant as stating he had heard that some of the hoodlum element in Denver, Colorado, is purchasing milk companies all over the United States. Furnish the Bureau any additional details you might have concerning this. It is important that allegations of this type are further exploited, and if not already handled, you should contact the Denver Division for possible additional details. In this regard, you should bear in mind your responsibility to secure details regarding possible hoodlum attempts to gain control of business enterprises or industry. If you have information from Denver regarding this, this should also be forwarded to the Bureau.

Reply to these matters should be submitted to reach the Bureau no later than 4/2/62.
