Investigation by Source D revealed that BAYO'S son, for a time, was acting as a confidential messenger in the Allied Information Office, Mexico, D. F.; however, no address was listed. In May, 1949, when BAYO visited Mexico City, he stayed for approximately a month at Monte Pirineos #725, Apartment 2, Lomas de Chapultepec. Inquiry reflected that this address is the residence of ALBERTO JOSEPH SUAREZ (CORTADA), an American citizen born on May 10, 1918, in the United States, exact town not known, who is the son of JOSE MANUEL SUAREZ and IRMA CORTADA. SUAREZ is in Mexico as a representative of The Sydney Ross Company, S.A., of Newark, New Jersey. At the present time, this company maintains its offices at Calle Louisiana #80, Mexico City. (X)(u)

When SUAREZ entered Mexico, he was accompanied by his wife, GLADYS DOMINGUEZ DE SUAREZ. In June, 1949, SUAREZ left Mexico for an extended vacation and is not expected to return until the latter part of September, 1949. During SUAREZ' absence, according to Source D, his apartment in Mexico City is being occupied by HANS VON SLUIZER who is in Mexico as a tourist and is affiliated with the motion picture business in the company known as "Noticiario Clasa." VON SLUIZER, it was learned, is married to EUNICE HOFFMAN DE VON SLUIZER and is a resident of the United States. Due to the fact that VON SLUIZER entered Mexico on a tourist card, the records of Gobernación failed to reflect any information regarding his background. (X)(u)

On June 16, 1949, C. W. FULLILOVE, of the U. S. Immigration Service, called at the American Embassy in Mexico City and discussed with THOMAS K. WRIGHT, First Secretary, the problem of smuggling arms and agents from the United States into Mexico and other Central American Republics, together with suspicious flights between Miami, Florida, and Veracruz, Mexico, of the American owned and operated PBY-5, U. S. registration N 1096 M. Mr. FULLILOVE provided certain information which linked a group of Americans operating out of Miami, Florida, with the "group" operating in Mexico which is engaged in revolutionary activity in certain Central American Republics and Caribbean Area countries. Mr. FULLILOVE furnished the following names and background information of several Americans who have been engaged in exporting to the Central American revolutionists quantities of munitions:

LOUIS NUTA of Miami, Florida, owner and operator of the Tropicair Airport, located at 167 and N. W. 7th Avenue, Miami, Florida, from which the PBY N 1096 M takes off for its
