may have regarding gambling at the above location.

ADMINISTRATIVE

On June 3, 1964, CG 6036-C advised SA JAMES W. GERBLICK that MAX NETTLER is the owner of Mister T's, a north side night club, and NETTLER lives in the same building in which it is located. NETTLER is engaged in gambling in the Chicago area, and is in some manner associated with LEONARD PATRICK in gambling. NETTLER is in Mister T's on Monday nights, and he has not in the past met BENNY GOLDBERG, and others who are gamblers and bookmakers, and it is possible that these Monday night meetings are held to settle the previous week's gambling proceeds. Informant advised that LEONARD PATRICK may also be meeting MAX NETTLER at Mister T's on Monday nights. Informant advised that on Tuesday nights other hoodlums in the Chicago area had been observed meeting at Mister T's.

CG 6036-C further advised that the address 948 West Eastwood is a card club which operates 24 hours a day. No money or chips are used, but each player pays a fee such as $1.50 to the house, and they then play private card games. The amounts won or lost are designated by using playing cards with different colors meaning different amounts. This system is also used at the card club called the Sherman Bridge Club.

The informant advised on July 9, 1964, that five people share in profits from the gambling room at 948 West Eastwood which was operated for over 20 years. These individuals are LEONARD PATRICK, DAVID ~~YAKS~~, FELIX ~~ALDERISIO~~, ALBERT ~~FRABOTTA~~, and MAX NETTLER. Informant advised that by way of history, the pangini game at this address was originally started by PATRICK and ~~YAKS~~, and it was fronted by NETTLER and ALDERISIO.

On September 3, 1964, the above informant advised that on the 31st of August LEONARD PATRICK was at Mister T's where he met numerous gamblers. Informant advised that apparently this meeting was called for the purpose of splitting the gambling profits for the month of August. Informant advised that a similar meeting is held each month, but not always at the same place.

On June 10, 1964, CG 6722-C-TE advised SA DENNIS W. SHANAHAN that MAX NETTLER, who is the true owner of Mister T's, possibly has an interest in a gambling room on Eastwood Avenue where a game called pangini is played.

On May 27, 1964, CG 6443-C advised SA JOSEPH G. SHEA that a certain kind of game called pangini is played at the card room at 948 West Eastwood. This game is played at one table for 50 cents to $1.00; at a second table a $2 to $4 game is played; and at a third table a game amounting to $6 or $8 or even higher is played. Informant described pangini as being a form of rummy which is played with eight decks of cards; a dealer turns over the cards, and betting is carried on either by the number or the color of the card. In order to participate in this game chips for 50 cents or $1.00 must be purchased from the dealer, but after a player wins or loses he cashes in his chips through a floor man, and in through the dealer.

Informant advised that the pangini game, which he has described above, has been operating at this location for 25 years, and LEONARD PATRICK owns 40 per cent interest in the game. Informant advised that this card room is the only place outside of Las Vegas where pangini is played.
