On May 6, 1964, a check of the Dallas County license registration numbers revealed that PH 1443 is listed to a RUSSELL DOUGLAS MATTHEWS, 4609 Southern, Dallas, Texas.

Assistant Chief of Police LEON POWERS, (National Academy), Irving, Texas, Police Department, had advised previously, that the residence at 2207 Greenbriar Street is allegedly occupied by Mrs. DONNA SUE HELTON, the prostitute wife of BILLY HELTON, who is presently in prison.

On January 30, 1964, DL T-2 advised that during the 1963-1964 football season he was in daily contact with an individual using telephone number BL 4-2584, concerning the football line and the Saturday college football games and the Sunday professional football games. He did not know the identity of the person that he had placed the bets with. DL T-2 stated that he is acquainted with MATTHEWS but that he did not recognize the voice on the telephone as that of MATTHEWS. Informant stated that he placed the bets under the number 99, rather than his name and that the payoffs and collections were made by a Negro male who works near the place where the informant is employed. Informant stated that he has not been contacted by the person at BL 4-2584 since the end of the football season and doubts that this individual is presently booking basketball games.

On February 7, 1964, DL T-1 advised that MATTHEWS had been in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, during the previous week and is believed by the informant to be attempting to set up a gambling club in that city.

DL T-1 advised on March 9, 1964, that MATTHEWS and JOHN ELI STONE had advised him that date that they were planning to fly to Las Vegas, Nevada, via Delta Airlines, the evening of March 9, 1964. The informant stated that they did not indicate to him the purpose of the trip.

On March 11, 1964, Mr. R. H. MANLEY, Reservations Manager, Delta Airlines, Love Field, advised that their records indicate that a J. STONE and R. MATTHEWS departed Dallas, Texas, for Las Vegas, Nevada, on the night of March 9, 1964, via Delta Airlines Flight #809.
