Rerep of SA JACK LOUIS MARSHALL at Miami, 6/26/63.

On 7/25/63, WF 1108-C advised SA JOHN R. BUCKLEY that subject had been residing intermittently at the Appolline Apartments, 1330 New Hampshire Avenue, N. W. He said that since TOURINE's trial in St. Marys County, Maryland, that the subject has spent a considerable amount of time in New York City. Informant advised that TOURINE returned from New York several days ago.

WF 1108-C advised that JOSEPH FRANCIS NESLINE, a close associate of the subject, has been staying at TOURINE's apartment in Washington, D. C., on a part-time basis during the past two weeks. Informant said that he knew of no gambling enterprise that TOURINE and NESLINE may be currently engaged in.

On 7/3/63, WF 1108-C advised that GEORGE LANDLEY, former partner and close associate of NESLINE, was in Washington, D. C., the previous weekend for a short visit.

At that time LANGLEY told informant that he has not been connected with gambling enterprises for more than a year and that he intends to retire from gambling.

According to informant, LANGLEY purchased a house at 6351 N. E. 19th Terrace, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, where he resides with his wife. LANGLEY reportedly owns a substantial interest in a pizza-pie business.

WFO will follow the activities of NESLINE and subject closely and will advise the Bureau and Miami of significant developments.

Miami will interview GEORGE LANGLEY regarding his association with the subject and NESLINE. In this regard although LANGLEY claims that he has not been involved in gambling enterprises for more than a year, it is likely that he will be contacted by the subject, NESLINE, and other prominent gamblers and hoodlums when they visit Florida. LANGLEY is knowledgeable regarding top-level gambling activity in Washington, D. C., and Florida for a substantial number of years.

WFO feels that LANGLEY would be an excellent target for development under the Top Echelon Criminal Informant Program.

Miami, in contacting LANGLEY, should insure WF 1108-C is fully protected.
