Reference is made to my communication dated August 3, 1959. (U)

A source with whom insufficient contact has been had to determine his reliability and who is described as a counterrevolutionary advised in early August, 1959, that he was in Miami, Florida, on July 30, 1959, and saw the Dominican Consul there give Morgan $200,000. Reportedly, one Dominick, allegedly a member of the "Mafia," was also present.
Dominick may be identical with Dominick Bartone, who is presently under indictment in Miami in connection with the attempted smuggling of arms destined to the Dominican Republic. (S) (U)

The source stated that Morgan was believed to be traveling between Cuba and the United States by private boat. (S) (U)

The above is for your information.
